

Third Workshop on Thesis Writing School of Economics, QAU

Resource Persons

Dr Muhammad Tariq Majeed
Dr Anwar Shah

Producing a quality piece of thesis and converting the same into a publication is becoming one of the key challenges for the students and their respective supervisors. To cope with this challenge, School of Economics, Quad-i-Azam University is organizing a Third One-day Workshop on Thesis Writing.

Expected Learning Outcomes from the Workshop

The participants are expected to learn the following after attending the workshop:

- Develop necessary skills for writing a thesis.
- Understand and overcome the common mistakes while writing a thesis.
- Be able to answer queries related to research and final thesis write up.
- Be able to know how to transform a thesis into publication.
- To help the participants regarding what examiners, reviewers and publishers want to see in a thesis/publication.

What will happen during the workshop?

The workshop will provide understanding regarding the standard approaches of thesis writing. In addition, the workshop will enable students to know about the issues associated with prevailing research practices and research traditions.

One of the main objectives of the workshop is to provide research students an opportunity to share and learn how to produce a quality research work independently and transform the same into a publication in peer reviewed HEC recognised national and international journals.

Who can benefit the most from the Workshop?

M.Phil/Ph.D research students, earlier carrier faculty members and fresh graduates.
